Agenda

Content:

Part A: Standing Items

Part A of the agenda will be put to the meeting for noting and acceptance of any recommendations

1. Confirmation of Minutes and Matters Arising

- Guild Council voted to pass the May Minutes.

Part B: Items for discussion and decision

2. Guild councillor resignation

The Guild President will discuss

- Sadly Sahil Khandwalla is graduating and will have to resign. This post will be filled in the next meeting.

3. General updates

The Guild President will discuss

- The Guild is currently assessing which company they want to engage for the rebrand
- Currently producing Videos for Orientation
- Currently in discussions to start a student wellbeing group with Murdoch's Health Department.

4. University next semester

The Guild president will discuss the following

- Working with the University on additional student support for semester 2
- Organizing a survey on Online exams and the future of Exams at Murdoch

5. University Fees

The Guild President and Reyhana will speak on this

- The effects of the increase in student fees will make it more costly for future Murdoch students that enrol in humanities
- The Guild President does not support the fee increases. Jethro plans to meet Sue Ellery and lobby other politicians involved in the education sector.
- Reyhana suggests that the Guild should take steps to combat the increase in fees.
- The increases in fees could possibly affect the university and school funding
- The increase in fees could also change the perception people have regarding certain degrees.
